We strive to encourage all of you to eat better, healthier and happier with our range of All Day options, ranging from our line of GIICES & SOTHIES COLD PRESSED, to our delicious all-day menus. We are not boring and we will definitely not put anything on the menu unless it looks and tastes like a million dollars! Attention, buyers... Greenwich Ave has a new place to take a quick bite. The Daily Café & Eatery, a new concept by chef Aux Delices and owner Deb Ponzek, just opened at the end of the Avenue. With two Greenwich locations (Elm St Centre and Riverside) for Aux Delices, chef Ponzek has decided to start a new brand with The Daily. We told her about her new venture, how she compares with Aux Delices, and more. Congratulations on the opening, especially at a time when so many restaurants unfortunately had to close their doors due to COVID. We had actually planned to open Daily last April, but of course COVID prevented that from happening. So... a year later, we're finally open! Great. How does the menu compare with Aux Delices? The menu is completely different from Aux Delices - we wanted to start a new brand. We love our offers at Aux Delices, but after 25 years we wanted to do something different! How would you describe the new concept? We consider Quotidiano to be a modern sandwich shop and an all-day coffee serving breakfast, lunch and snacks. Our menu offers breakfast such as omelets, oats, parchments for breakfast. For lunch we have amazing hot and cold sandwich in reuben, but using mushrooms instead of pastrami! I particularly like our salmon and mango salad and our harissa chicken salad! For something sweet, we bake amazing cookies and brownies every day, and offer espresso ice cream! Greenwich Avenue is such a sought after location. Why did you choose this particular? We think our location on Greenwich Avenue is ideal for our taking and going guests. There are so many great restaurants at the bottom of the Ave, and we are lucky to offer something of a quick and delicious option! We're the perfect place to enter while you're waiting online at the Apple store, or just step out of a Soul Cycle class! Is there anything else you'd like Greenwich Moms (and Daddy!) to know? [My husband and business partner] Greg and I worked with our good friends Jim Hoffman and Doron Sabag from SBP Homes and our General Manager from Aux Delices Chris Berzolla, so let's all bring something different to the table! We are located at 360 Greenwich Avenue and are open 7 days a week. Afterwards Open aux delices and feed a family name in the county of Fairfield, because Debra Ponzek would not like to open a new coffee to host the traffickers, commuters and e Greenwich Avenue, the Daily Cafe and the restaurant serves Greenwich Community seven days a week with healthy grab-and-go-go-go-up lunch, made with fresh ingredients.
